To W. L. Garrison.

Boston, April 14, 1860

My dear Sir:—

Please accept my most hearty acknowledgements for the volume you have sent me. I shall read it eagerly, and, I doubt not, with great profit.— I am glad to learn, in so pleasant a manner, the entire history of the immortal Sonnet.— Owing to a later arrangement I shall not repeat the Fast-day Sermon, as I had expected to, next Sabbath evening.

Very truly yours
J. K. Manning
